Board Development: Nothing to report.

MMLC: R. Crites stated that no meeting was held.

Corporation Counsel: P. Parker stated that a FOIA request was made using the GDL’s Facebook page. While it is not necessarily the appropriate method of contact, the FOIA request was honored.

P. Parker stated that contract negotiations will be beginning with the union very soon. He stated that future board meetings will have closed sessions to update the board on the status of the negotiations.

GDL Foundation: Nothing to report.

Written Reports: C. Lane stated there were a couple of typos in the Director’s written report. She thanked him for the invitation to the Grand Blanc open house event.

M. Armstrong stated that under the incident and operations portion of the Director’s report there is inconsistency when identifying where an incident has taken place. She would like to see the branch name listed. C. Lane stated she would also like to know about any follow-up with patrons that may have been injured.

C. Lane inquired who paid for the new roof at the Beecher location. D. Conklin stated he was not aware of who paid for it, but it was not GDL. C. Lane suggested that when a large amount is given for a project like Beecher’s roof, that a thank you note be sent to the benefactor. L. Ryals-Massey stated that while it is a great idea, it should be the local municipality that thanks the benefactor because the municipality is the one that maintains the buildings.
R. Crites remarked on the bed bug response measure. D. Conklin replied that when a bed bug is identified on an item, the item will be placed into a giant Ziploc bag. He continued to say that the item will then be placed into a bed bug oven that heats to 120 degrees to kill them.

M. Armstrong inquired if an entertainer has been selected for the Black History Month Brunch. D. Conklin stated an entertainer, Jay Moss, has been secured. M. Armstrong inquired how the honorees are selected. D. Conklin stated that nominations are taken from the community and is informal at this time. He stated that the formal process is not finalized yet, but it will be announced at the brunch in February. C. Lane suggested contacting the Greater Flint Sports Hall of Fame to review their formalized nomination process.

L. Ryals-Massey inquired if the staff e-book training was done during normal operating hours and D. Conklin replied it is.

L. Ryals-Massey inquired which staff member was the designated United Way Ambassador. D. Conklin replied that we do not have one.

C. Lane inquired if the Children’s Librarian position had been filled. D. Conklin replied that an internal candidate was selected.

C. Lane inquired about the MERS conference A. Goldyn had recently attended. A. Goldyn replied that it is a very educational conference and learning what other municipalities are doing to reduce their OPEB liability. C. Lane inquired if A. Goldyn would be comfortable moving all employees to the MERS system. A. Goldyn replied that MERS is handling the retirement contributions for employees hired after January 2013; however, she would not recommend moving the pre-2013 employees from the Genesee County Employees Retirement Commission to MERS. P. Parker stated he does not believe that the pre-2013 employees can be removed from the County plan.

L. Ryals-Massey inquired about the Affordable Care Act webinar that A. Goldyn attended and how it affects GDL. A. Goldyn replied that the webinar discussed the required annual reporting that employers must file each year with the IRS. A. Goldyn stated that the payroll vendor could handle the reporting for GDL if a one-time additional online software module was purchased for $10,000, but also have nominal annual charges for preparing and printing the statements. A. Goldyn stated that a third party vendor was recommended through our insurance representative for a much more reasonable annual rate of $1800.
