Written Reports: C. Lane inquired about the grants listed in the Director’s report but not seeing it listed on the financial reports. D. Conklin stated that we have just applied for some of the grants listed, while others GDL will not actually receive the funds. D. Conklin also stated that grant money may have been received in a previous year and is just now being expended. A. Goldyn stated that grant revenue has been received and is listed in the financial reports. C. Lane apologized and stated she was looking at the wrong column. L. Ryals-Massey offered kudos to the staff members that help write the grants.

L. Ryals-Massey inquired about the broken circuit breakers at the Grand Blanc location. D. Conklin replied that they were old circuit breakers.

L. Ryals-Massey inquired about the Prime Time Family Time and how the families would be selected to participate. D. Conklin replied that it would be covered in the grant training session our staff will attend. L. Ryals-Massey inquired about the grant amount and D. Conklin stated we have been awarded the full requested amount of $8,000.

L. Ryals-Massey inquired about an IT staff member being part of the Michigan Innovative Users Group board. D. Conklin stated she will play an active role in making software enhancement suggestions on behalf of libraries in Michigan.
Written Reports (continued): C. Lane remarked that some of the patrons are becoming a bit unruly after reading the incident reports section of the Director’s report. However, she wanted to offer kudos to the staff for stepping up and handling the situations.

V. Conerly-Moon inquired about the Vera B. Rison guest book. D. Conklin replied that there was an online guest book that people could leave condolence messages for Vera B. Rison’s family after she passed away. He stated that he discovered that it was going to be removed soon and instructed staff to create a print and digital copy of the website and to order print versions of the guestbook to keep at the library.

C. Lane remarked she’s happy to see that the work on the wall at the Beecher location has been completed.

R. Crites inquired what does the acronym “EFTPS” stand for in the monthly check register. A. Goldyn replied that it is the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System, or EFTPS, for reporting the tax withholdings from payroll.

C. Lane stated that she would like to see the adoption of the annual budget on the November agendas. L. Ryals-Massey inquired if it is in the by-laws to approve the budget at the December meetings. A. Goldyn stated that the next year’s budget must be adopted no later than the December meeting. A.
